

Position: Lead RLA(Reading & Language Arts) Teacher

About Us: Nativity Preparatory School, an accredited Jesuit middle school in Boston, serves boys from low-income families. We offer a tuition-free education, preparing students for success in high school, college, and beyond. Our highly structured environment fosters academic excellence, personal growth, and a sense of responsibility to the community.

Job Description: We are seeking a dedicated middle school lead Reading/Language Arts Teacher to join our team. The lead RLA teacher will oversee the implementation of the Reading and Language Arts curriculum. The ideal candidate is passionate about literacy education, skilled in differentiated instruction, and committed to creating a supportive learning environment. The lead RLA teacher will collaborate with colleagues on curriculum development and participate in extracurricular activities to support the holistic development of our students.

Responsibilities:

- Implement engaging, standards-aligned Reading and Language Arts curriculum.
- Utilize a variety of instructional strategies to support student comprehension and literacy skills, including differentiated instruction to meet the diverse needs of students.
- Foster a collaborative and inclusive classroom environment.
- Collaborate with colleagues to align curriculum and share best practices.
- Communicate regularly with students, parents, and administrators.
- Participate in professional development opportunities to enhance teaching skills.

Qualifications:

- BA or BS and teaching experience are required.
- Preferred applicants should have a master's degree and 3-5 years of RLA teaching experience at the middle school level.
- Strong knowledge of literacy instruction and curriculum standards.
- Valid teaching certification/license in Massachusetts.
- Leadership experience preferred.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Commitment to diversity, inclusion, and Nativity Prep's mission.
- Passion for teaching and willingness to work collaboratively.

Compensation

- Salary is commensurate with experience and degree.
