

Position: Lead Science Teacher

About Us: Nativity Preparatory School, an accredited Jesuit middle school in Boston, serves boys from low-income families. We offer a tuition-free education, preparing students for success in high school, college, and beyond. Our highly structured environment fosters academic excellence, personal growth, and a sense of responsibility to the community.

Job Description: We seek a passionate Middle School Lead Science Teacher to join our dedicated faculty. The Lead Science Teacher will oversee curriculum implementation and teach 6th-8th grade science to small classes of boys. The ideal candidate has a strong background in science education, a commitment to student engagement, and a desire to foster a supportive classroom environment. The Lead Science Teacher will collaborate with colleagues on curricular activities and participate in our extended day program.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement engaging, standards-aligned science curriculum.
- Utilize varied instructional strategies to promote student understanding and engagement.
- Differentiate instruction to meet diverse student needs.
- Foster a collaborative and inclusive classroom environment.
- Assess student learning and provide timely feedback.
- Collaborate with colleagues to align curriculum and share best practices.
- Communicate regularly with students, parents, and administrators.
- Participate in professional development opportunities.

Qualifications:

- BA or BS and teaching experience are required.
- Preferred applicants should have a master's degree and 3-5 years of RLA teaching experience at the middle school level.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Valid teaching certification/license in Massachusetts.
- Strong knowledge of middle school science content and standards.
- Leadership experience preferred.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Commitment to diversity, inclusion, and Nativity Prep's mission.
- Passion for teaching and willingness to work collaboratively.

Compensation

- Salary is commensurate with experience and degree.
